

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE WORLD'S HOME CHART PUTS IT IN A LINE.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA.

2 O'CLOCK.

EXTRA.

2 O'CLOCK.

DAILEY INDIFFERENT.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

LAW'S STRONG ARM.

DEF THE DELEGATES.

ELECTION BETS WE READ ABOUT.

The Accused Roundman Sings
While Waiting for the Court.

Good Racing Should Be the Order
at Guttenburg To-Day.

A Republican State Committee-
man to Be Arrested, It Is Said.

Electrical Contractors' Association
on the Strike.

The Strong Contrast Between Plaintiff and Defendant.

Police Think They Have Traced
Bribe Money to Its Source.

Non-Union Men Taken Off Several
Big Building Jobs.

Prophecies that the Building Trades
Workmen Will All Go on Strike.

The Fund for the Relief of the Hannans Growing.

Good racing should be the rule at Guttenburg to-day. The six events are well filled and the entries high class. Excellent sport is bound to result. The two-year-olds, Sandowne, Fidget and Balance, should run five furlongs very fast in the fourth race and the weights are adjusted to put them on nearly even terms. Hazelhurst, Remorse, Bob Sutherland and Polidora should go well in the second race and Ocean Queen Billy and May D. may make things hot for the other entries in the sixth event. The track will be dry and fast. The entries and selections are as follows:

First Race—Purse of $400, the winner to be sold at auction, five furlongs.
N. Johnson's Knick-Knack, 120
W. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115

For the first time in his life, probably, Roundman Matthew P. Daley, whose trial for alleged criminal assault on pretty Mamie Hannan, is now progressing before Recorder Smyth, in Part II. of the General Sessions, this morning realized what it was to look out from behind bars as a prisoner.

Ever since his arrest, he has been in the hands of Police Justice Taintor, this man, accused of one of the most heinous of crimes, has walked the streets with a freedom rarely accorded any one in a like position.

He has continued to draw his full roundman's pay from the municipal Police Department, whose officers he is supposed to have disgraced and whose rules and discipline he is accused of flagrantly disregarding.

Supplied with ample funds, he has been free to come and go as he pleased and mingle socially among his friends and acquaintances, action on even the minor charges of being out of uniform and on duty having been considered by the Police Board until the conclusion of his trial in the criminal court.

A Hottish Contrast.
Scorned and pointed at by the finger of shame, she has been deprived of securing employment and adding her mother in keeping a roof over her head. Because of her daughter's misdeeds, too, the mother herself, for actually clubbing whom Daley has indicted, has been deprived of her former position as a landlady, and for weeks has been unable to earn a cent, although willing and anxious to work.

Yesterday not only disposition but destination shared the whole family in the fact, but thanks to the generosity of several friends, the family has been able to secure a temporary refuge.

Her mother was able to pay her rent, but her need of the necessities of life is still apparent.

Daley appeared in court yesterday, sleek, well-dressed and apparently well fed. His alleged victim had no suitable clothing of her own to wear, and had to be dressed kindly loaned her by sympathetic neighbors.

Ased by Her Wroness.
Mamie Hannan was seventeen years old last Wednesday, but were she taller she might almost pass for a woman of thirty. Her fresh red cheeks, her eyes, her hair, denoted the perfect beauty of youth, are now wan and pallid.

In two months she will become a mother, and the remorse and worry occasioned by her condition, coupled with the disgrace she only feels, is apparent in her face.

The Hannans are not what are known as "respectable" people, but they are decent, honest and respectable, as well as industrious and neat.

Intellectual opportunities may be rare in a tenement, but honor and justice are valued as highly, and are in the most palatial mansion on Fifth avenue.

Daley's Alleged "Pull."
There are those who claim to know and are not backward in stating the circumstances of the principal in the action now being tried before Recorder Smyth, that March day, to Roundman Daley's "pull."

It is a "pull" that has accorded him so much distinction and that it is evident that that "pull" has failed to penetrate the brown-stone court-house.

As the conclusion of yesterday's court proceedings Recorder Smyth committed Daley to the Tombs. The $500 bail bond, furnished by John C. P. of 60 East Fifty-second street, and which its usefulness when Daley's trial began.

The court has one way to secure the appearance of a defendant at a criminal trial after his commitment, and that is by fining him up. It is said that Daley last night slept in the City Prison.

He Means in Court.
Daley came up to the morning in the regular prison van with other prisoners from the Tombs and was placed in the pen in the rear of the court-room. He waited for the court to open with a song.

When he came out and took a seat beside his counsel, Emmonson and Frederick B. House, he looked somewhat paler than usual. As yesterday, however, he closely watched the examination of his wife by his attorneys invariably consulted him in all matters of importance.

He is accepting a juror.
When court opened at 11:10 a morning eight jurors, out of nearly forty who had been summoned, were called.

Alfred E. Ashfield, foreman, fire insurance, 840 East One Hundred and sixty-third street.
Moses Nussbaum, cigars and stationery, 320 Third street.
George William Kemp, drugs, 57 West Forty-sixth street.
Robert Armstrong, fancy goods, 806 Bleecker street.
Louis Frank, retired, 802 Amsterdam avenue.
John F. Bullwinkel, retired grocer, 814 East Eighty-third street.
Curtis Crandall, fishing tackle manufacturer, 2337 First avenue.
Aron Crisler, a dealer in antiques and curiosities of 740 East One Hundred and twenty-second street, was accepted as the ninth juror.

The Hannans Fund Growing.
The fund started by THE EVENING WORLD for the relief of Mrs. Hannan and her unfortunate daughter has grown to $25.00. The contributions from sympathetic readers are as follows:

Mr. J. J. New Haven, $11.50
Z. Z. New Haven, $10.00
N. D. New Haven, $1.00
A. C. New Haven, $1.00
Total, $23.50
The new subscribers were turned over to Mrs. Hannan and gratefully received by her.

Phonograph Cured.
What doctor will guarantee to cure my mother's asthma? I have been in a hospital for two months, but no improvement. Of your own drugstore at 224 St. and 6th ave.

Over 100,000
MORE ADS. HAVE BEEN
PRINTED THIS YEAR THAN
WERE PRINTED DURING
THE SAME PERIOD OF 1891.

Over 2,000,000
MORE WORLDS WERE
PRINTED IN OCTOBER,
1892, THAN IN OCTOBER,
1891.

Over 100,000
MORE ADS. HAVE BEEN
PRINTED THIS YEAR THAN
WERE PRINTED DURING
THE SAME PERIOD OF 1891.

Over 2,000,000
MORE WORLDS WERE
PRINTED IN OCTOBER,
1892, THAN IN OCTOBER,
1891.

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE WORLD'S HOME CHART PUTS IT IN A LINE.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA.

2 O'CLOCK.

EXTRA.

2 O'CLOCK.

DAILEY INDIFFERENT.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

LAW'S STRONG ARM.

DEF THE DELEGATES.

ELECTION BETS WE READ ABOUT.

The Accused Roundman Sings
While Waiting for the Court.

Good Racing Should Be the Order
at Guttenburg To-Day.

A Republican State Committee-
man to Be Arrested, It Is Said.

Electrical Contractors' Association
on the Strike.

The Strong Contrast Between Plaintiff and Defendant.

Police Think They Have Traced
Bribe Money to Its Source.

Non-Union Men Taken Off Several
Big Building Jobs.

Prophecies that the Building Trades
Workmen Will All Go on Strike.

The Fund for the Relief of the Han-
nans Growing.

Good racing should be the rule at Guttenburg to-day. The six events are well filled and the entries high class. Excellent sport is bound to result. The two-year-olds, Sandowne, Fidget and Balance, should run five furlongs very fast in the fourth race and the weights are adjusted to put them on nearly even terms. Hazelhurst, Remorse, Bob Sutherland and Polidora should go well in the second race and Ocean Queen Billy and May D. may make things hot for the other entries in the sixth event. The track will be dry and fast. The entries and selections are as follows:

First Race—Purse of $400, the winner to be sold at auction, five furlongs.
N. Johnson's Knick-Knack, 120
W. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115

For the first time in his life, probably, Roundman Matthew P. Daley, whose trial for alleged criminal assault on pretty Mamie Hannan, is now progressing before Recorder Smyth, in Part II. of the General Sessions, this morning realized what it was to look out from behind bars as a prisoner.

Ever since his arrest, he has been in the hands of Police Justice Taintor, this man, accused of one of the most heinous of crimes, has walked the streets with a freedom rarely accorded any one in a like position.

He has continued to draw his full roundman's pay from the municipal Police Department, whose officers he is supposed to have disgraced and whose rules and discipline he is accused of flagrantly disregarding.

Supplied with ample funds, he has been free to come and go as he pleased and mingle socially among his friends and acquaintances, action on even the minor charges of being out of uniform and on duty having been considered by the Police Board until the conclusion of his trial in the criminal court.

A Hottish Contrast.
Scorned and pointed at by the finger of shame, she has been deprived of securing employment and adding her mother in keeping a roof over her head. Because of her daughter's misdeeds, too, the mother herself, for actually clubbing whom Daley has indicted, has been deprived of her former position as a landlady, and for weeks has been unable to earn a cent, although willing and anxious to work.

Yesterday not only disposition but destination shared the whole family in the fact, but thanks to the generosity of several friends, the family has been able to secure a temporary refuge.

Her mother was able to pay her rent, but her need of the necessities of life is still apparent.

Daley appeared in court yesterday, sleek, well-dressed and apparently well fed. His alleged victim had no suitable clothing of her own to wear, and had to be dressed kindly loaned her by sympathetic neighbors.

Ased by Her Wroness.
Mamie Hannan was seventeen years old last Wednesday, but were she taller she might almost pass for a woman of thirty. Her fresh red cheeks, her eyes, her hair, denoted the perfect beauty of youth, are now wan and pallid.

In two months she will become a mother, and the remorse and worry occasioned by her condition, coupled with the disgrace she only feels, is apparent in her face.

The Hannans are not what are known as "respectable" people, but they are decent, honest and respectable, as well as industrious and neat.

Intellectual opportunities may be rare in a tenement, but honor and justice are valued as highly, and are in the most palatial mansion on Fifth avenue.

Daley's Alleged "Pull."
There are those who claim to know and are not backward in stating the circumstances of the principal in the action now being tried before Recorder Smyth, that March day, to Roundman Daley's "pull."

It is a "pull" that has accorded him so much distinction and that it is evident that that "pull" has failed to penetrate the brown-stone court-house.

As the conclusion of yesterday's court proceedings Recorder Smyth committed Daley to the Tombs. The $500 bail bond, furnished by John C. P. of 60 East Fifty-second street, and which its usefulness when Daley's trial began.

The court has one way to secure the appearance of a defendant at a criminal trial after his commitment, and that is by fining him up. It is said that Daley last night slept in the City Prison.

He Means in Court.
Daley came up to the morning in the regular prison van with other prisoners from the Tombs and was placed in the pen in the rear of the court-room. He waited for the court to open with a song.

When he came out and took a seat beside his counsel, Emmonson and Frederick B. House, he looked somewhat paler than usual. As yesterday, however, he closely watched the examination of his wife by his attorneys invariably consulted him in all matters of importance.

He is accepting a juror.
When court opened at 11:10 a morning eight jurors, out of nearly forty who had been summoned, were called.

Alfred E. Ashfield, foreman, fire insurance, 840 East One Hundred and sixty-third street.
Moses Nussbaum, cigars and stationery, 320 Third street.
George William Kemp, drugs, 57 West Forty-sixth street.
Robert Armstrong, fancy goods, 806 Bleecker street.
Louis Frank, retired, 802 Amsterdam avenue.
John F. Bullwinkel, retired grocer, 814 East Eighty-third street.
Curtis Crandall, fishing tackle manufacturer, 2337 First avenue.
Aron Crisler, a dealer in antiques and curiosities of 740 East One Hundred and twenty-second street, was accepted as the ninth juror.

The Hannans Fund Growing.
The fund started by THE EVENING WORLD for the relief of Mrs. Hannan and her unfortunate daughter has grown to $25.00. The contributions from sympathetic readers are as follows:

Mr. J. J. New Haven, $11.50
Z. Z. New Haven, $10.00
N. D. New Haven, $1.00
A. C. New Haven, $1.00
Total, $23.50
The new subscribers were turned over to Mrs. Hannan and gratefully received by her.

Phonograph Cured.
What doctor will guarantee to cure my mother's asthma? I have been in a hospital for two months, but no improvement. Of your own drugstore at 224 St. and 6th ave.

Over 100,000
MORE ADS. HAVE BEEN
PRINTED THIS YEAR THAN
WERE PRINTED DURING
THE SAME PERIOD OF 1891.

Over 2,000,000
MORE WORLDS WERE
PRINTED IN OCTOBER,
1892, THAN IN OCTOBER,
1891.

Over 100,000
MORE ADS. HAVE BEEN
PRINTED THIS YEAR THAN
WERE PRINTED DURING
THE SAME PERIOD OF 1891.

Over 2,000,000
MORE WORLDS WERE
PRINTED IN OCTOBER,
1892, THAN IN OCTOBER,
1891.

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE WORLD'S HOME CHART PUTS IT IN A LINE.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA.

2 O'CLOCK.

EXTRA.

2 O'CLOCK.

DAILEY INDIFFERENT.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

LAW'S STRONG ARM.

DEF THE DELEGATES.

ELECTION BETS WE READ ABOUT.

The Accused Roundman Sings
While Waiting for the Court.

Good Racing Should Be the Order
at Guttenburg To-Day.

A Republican State Committee-
man to Be Arrested, It Is Said.

Electrical Contractors' Association
on the Strike.

The Strong Contrast Between Plaintiff and Defendant.

Police Think They Have Traced
Bribe Money to Its Source.

Non-Union Men Taken Off Several
Big Building Jobs.

Prophecies that the Building Trades
Workmen Will All Go on Strike.

The Fund for the Relief of the Han-
nans Growing.

Good racing should be the rule at Guttenburg to-day. The six events are well filled and the entries high class. Excellent sport is bound to result. The two-year-olds, Sandowne, Fidget and Balance, should run five furlongs very fast in the fourth race and the weights are adjusted to put them on nearly even terms. Hazelhurst, Remorse, Bob Sutherland and Polidora should go well in the second race and Ocean Queen Billy and May D. may make things hot for the other entries in the sixth event. The track will be dry and fast. The entries and selections are as follows:

First Race—Purse of $400, the winner to be sold at auction, five furlongs.
N. Johnson's Knick-Knack, 120
W. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115

For the first time in his life, probably, Roundman Matthew P. Daley, whose trial for alleged criminal assault on pretty Mamie Hannan, is now progressing before Recorder Smyth, in Part II. of the General Sessions, this morning realized what it was to look out from behind bars as a prisoner.

Ever since his arrest, he has been in the hands of Police Justice Taintor, this man, accused of one of the most heinous of crimes, has walked the streets with a freedom rarely accorded any one in a like position.

He has continued to draw his full roundman's pay from the municipal Police Department, whose officers he is supposed to have disgraced and whose rules and discipline he is accused of flagrantly disregarding.

Supplied with ample funds, he has been free to come and go as he pleased and mingle socially among his friends and acquaintances, action on even the minor charges of being out of uniform and on duty having been considered by the Police Board until the conclusion of his trial in the criminal court.

A Hottish Contrast.
Scorned and pointed at by the finger of shame, she has been deprived of securing employment and adding her mother in keeping a roof over her head. Because of her daughter's misdeeds, too, the mother herself, for actually clubbing whom Daley has indicted, has been deprived of her former position as a landlady, and for weeks has been unable to earn a cent, although willing and anxious to work.

Yesterday not only disposition but destination shared the whole family in the fact, but thanks to the generosity of several friends, the family has been able to secure a temporary refuge.

Her mother was able to pay her rent, but her need of the necessities of life is still apparent.

Daley appeared in court yesterday, sleek, well-dressed and apparently well fed. His alleged victim had no suitable clothing of her own to wear, and had to be dressed kindly loaned her by sympathetic neighbors.

Ased by Her Wroness.
Mamie Hannan was seventeen years old last Wednesday, but were she taller she might almost pass for a woman of thirty. Her fresh red cheeks, her eyes, her hair, denoted the perfect beauty of youth, are now wan and pallid.

In two months she will become a mother, and the remorse and worry occasioned by her condition, coupled with the disgrace she only feels, is apparent in her face.

The Hannans are not what are known as "respectable" people, but they are decent, honest and respectable, as well as industrious and neat.

Intellectual opportunities may be rare in a tenement, but honor and justice are valued as highly, and are in the most palatial mansion on Fifth avenue.

Daley's Alleged "Pull."
There are those who claim to know and are not backward in stating the circumstances of the principal in the action now being tried before Recorder Smyth, that March day, to Roundman Daley's "pull."

It is a "pull" that has accorded him so much distinction and that it is evident that that "pull" has failed to penetrate the brown-stone court-house.

As the conclusion of yesterday's court proceedings Recorder Smyth committed Daley to the Tombs. The $500 bail bond, furnished by John C. P. of 60 East Fifty-second street, and which its usefulness when Daley's trial began.

The court has one way to secure the appearance of a defendant at a criminal trial after his commitment, and that is by fining him up. It is said that Daley last night slept in the City Prison.

He Means in Court.
Daley came up to the morning in the regular prison van with other prisoners from the Tombs and was placed in the pen in the rear of the court-room. He waited for the court to open with a song.

When he came out and took a seat beside his counsel, Emmonson and Frederick B. House, he looked somewhat paler than usual. As yesterday, however, he closely watched the examination of his wife by his attorneys invariably consulted him in all matters of importance.

He is accepting a juror.
When court opened at 11:10 a morning eight jurors, out of nearly forty who had been summoned, were called.

Alfred E. Ashfield, foreman, fire insurance, 840 East One Hundred and sixty-third street.
Moses Nussbaum, cigars and stationery, 320 Third street.
George William Kemp, drugs, 57 West Forty-sixth street.
Robert Armstrong, fancy goods, 806 Bleecker street.
Louis Frank, retired, 802 Amsterdam avenue.
John F. Bullwinkel, retired grocer, 814 East Eighty-third street.
Curtis Crandall, fishing tackle manufacturer, 2337 First avenue.
Aron Crisler, a dealer in antiques and curiosities of 740 East One Hundred and twenty-second street, was accepted as the ninth juror.

The Hannans Fund Growing.
The fund started by THE EVENING WORLD for the relief of Mrs. Hannan and her unfortunate daughter has grown to $25.00. The contributions from sympathetic readers are as follows:

Mr. J. J. New Haven, $11.50
Z. Z. New Haven, $10.00
N. D. New Haven, $1.00
A. C. New Haven, $1.00
Total, $23.50
The new subscribers were turned over to Mrs. Hannan and gratefully received by her.

Phonograph Cured.
What doctor will guarantee to cure my mother's asthma? I have been in a hospital for two months, but no improvement. Of your own drugstore at 224 St. and 6th ave.

Over 100,000
MORE ADS. HAVE BEEN
PRINTED THIS YEAR THAN
WERE PRINTED DURING
THE SAME PERIOD OF 1891.

Over 2,000,000
MORE WORLDS WERE
PRINTED IN OCTOBER,
1892, THAN IN OCTOBER,
1891.

Over 100,000
MORE ADS. HAVE BEEN
PRINTED THIS YEAR THAN
WERE PRINTED DURING
THE SAME PERIOD OF 1891.

Over 2,000,000
MORE WORLDS WERE
PRINTED IN OCTOBER,
1892, THAN IN OCTOBER,
1891.

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE WORLD'S HOME CHART PUTS IT IN A LINE.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA.

2 O'CLOCK.

EXTRA.

2 O'CLOCK.

DAILEY INDIFFERENT.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

LAW'S STRONG ARM.

DEF THE DELEGATES.

ELECTION BETS WE READ ABOUT.

The Accused Roundman Sings
While Waiting for the Court.

Good Racing Should Be the Order
at Guttenburg To-Day.

A Republican State Committee-
man to Be Arrested, It Is Said.

Electrical Contractors' Association
on the Strike.

The Strong Contrast Between Plaintiff and Defendant.

Police Think They Have Traced
Bribe Money to Its Source.

Non-Union Men Taken Off Several
Big Building Jobs.

Prophecies that the Building Trades
Workmen Will All Go on Strike.

The Fund for the Relief of the Han-
nans Growing.

Good racing should be the rule at Guttenburg to-day. The six events are well filled and the entries high class. Excellent sport is bound to result. The two-year-olds, Sandowne, Fidget and Balance, should run five furlongs very fast in the fourth race and the weights are adjusted to put them on nearly even terms. Hazelhurst, Remorse, Bob Sutherland and Polidora should go well in the second race and Ocean Queen Billy and May D. may make things hot for the other entries in the sixth event. The track will be dry and fast. The entries and selections are as follows:

First Race—Purse of $400, the winner to be sold at auction, five furlongs.
N. Johnson's Knick-Knack, 120
W. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115
H. J. Daley's Little, 115

For the first time in his life, probably, Roundman Matthew P. Daley, whose trial for alleged criminal assault on pretty Mamie Hannan, is now progressing before Recorder Smyth, in Part II. of the General Sessions, this morning realized what it was to look out from behind bars as a prisoner.

Ever since his arrest, he has been in the hands of Police Justice Taintor, this man, accused of one of the most heinous of crimes, has walked the streets with a freedom rarely accorded any one in a like position.

He has continued to draw his full roundman's pay from the municipal Police Department, whose officers he is supposed to have disgraced and whose rules and discipline he is accused of flagrantly disregarding.

Supplied with ample funds, he has been free to come and go as he pleased and mingle socially among his friends and acquaintances, action on even the minor charges of being out of uniform and on duty having been considered by the Police Board until the conclusion of his trial in the criminal court.

A Hottish Contrast.
Scorned and pointed at by the finger of shame, she has been deprived of securing employment and adding her mother in keeping a roof over her head. Because of her daughter's misdeeds, too, the mother herself, for actually clubbing whom Daley has indicted, has been deprived of her former position as a landlady, and for weeks has been unable to earn a cent, although willing and anxious to work.

Yesterday not only disposition but destination shared the whole family in the fact, but thanks to the generosity of several friends, the family has been able to secure a temporary refuge.

Her mother was able to pay her rent, but her need of the necessities of life is still apparent.

Daley appeared in court yesterday, sleek, well-dressed and apparently well fed. His alleged victim had no suitable clothing of her own to wear, and had to be dressed kindly loaned her by sympathetic neighbors.

Ased by Her Wroness.
Mamie Hannan was seventeen years old last Wednesday, but were she taller she might almost pass for a woman of thirty. Her fresh red cheeks, her eyes, her hair, denoted the perfect beauty of youth, are now wan and pallid.

In two months she will become a mother, and the remorse and worry occasioned by her condition, coupled with the disgrace she only feels, is apparent in her face.

The Hannans are not what are known as "respectable" people, but they are decent, honest and respectable, as well as industrious and neat.

Intellectual opportunities may be rare in a tenement, but honor and justice are valued as highly, and are in the most palatial mansion on Fifth avenue.

Daley's Alleged "Pull."
There are those who claim to know and are not backward in stating the circumstances of the principal in the action now being tried before Recorder Smyth, that March day, to Roundman Daley's "pull."

It is a "pull" that has accorded him so much distinction and that it is evident that that "pull" has failed to penetrate the brown-stone court-house.

As the conclusion of yesterday's court proceedings Recorder Smyth committed Daley to the Tombs. The $500 bail bond, furnished by John C. P. of 60 East Fifty-second street, and which its usefulness when Daley's trial began.

The court has one way to secure the appearance of a defendant at a criminal trial after his commitment, and that is by fining him up. It is said that Daley last night slept in the City Prison.

He Means in Court.
Daley came up to the morning in the regular prison van with other prisoners from the Tombs and was placed in the pen in the rear of the court-room. He waited for the court to open with a song.

When he came out and took a seat beside his counsel, Emmonson and Frederick B. House, he looked somewhat paler than usual. As yesterday, however, he closely watched the examination of his wife by his attorneys invariably consulted him in all matters of importance.

He is accepting a juror.
When court opened at 11:10 a morning eight jurors, out of nearly forty who had been summoned, were called.

Alfred E. Ashfield, foreman, fire insurance, 840 East One Hundred and sixty-third street.
Moses Nussbaum, cigars and stationery, 320 Third street.
George William Kemp, drugs, 57 West Forty-sixth street.
Robert Armstrong, fancy goods, 806 Bleecker street.
Louis Frank, retired, 802 Amsterdam avenue.
John F. Bullwinkel, retired grocer, 814 East Eighty-third street.
Curtis Crandall, fishing tackle manufacturer, 2337 First avenue.
Aron Crisler, a dealer in antiques and curiosities of 740 East One Hundred and twenty-second street, was accepted as the ninth juror.

The Hannans Fund Growing.
The fund started by THE EVENING WORLD for the relief of Mrs. Hannan and her unfortunate daughter has grown to $25.00. The contributions from sympathetic readers are as follows:

Mr. J. J. New Haven, $11.50
Z. Z. New Haven, $10.00
N. D. New Haven, $1.00
A. C. New Haven, $1.00
Total, $23.50
The new subscribers were turned over to Mrs. Hannan and gratefully received by her.

Phonograph Cured.
What doctor will guarantee to cure my mother's asthma? I have been in a hospital for two months, but no improvement. Of your own drugstore at 224 St. and 6th ave.

Over 100,000
MORE ADS. HAVE BEEN
PRINTED THIS YEAR THAN
WERE PRINTED DURING
THE SAME PERIOD OF 1891.

Over 2,000,000
MORE WORLDS WERE
PRINTED IN OCTOBER,
1892, THAN IN OCTOBER,
1891.

Over 100,000
MORE ADS. HAVE BEEN
PRINTED THIS YEAR THAN
WERE PRINTED DURING
THE SAME PERIOD OF 1891.

Over 2,000,000
MORE WORLDS WERE
PRINTED IN OCTOBER,
1892, THAN IN OCTOBER,
1891.

PRICE ONE CENT.

THE WORLD'S HOME CHART PUTS IT IN A LINE.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA.

2 O'CLOCK.

EXTRA.

2 O'CLOCK.

DAILEY INDIFFERENT.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

LAW'S STRONG ARM.

DEF THE DELEGATES.

ELECTION BETS WE READ ABOUT.

The Accused Roundman Sings
While Waiting for the Court.

Good Racing Should Be the Order
at Guttenburg To-Day.

A Republican State Committee-